FIRE DESTROYS BLOCK OWNED BY MARIONITE

Tom Jevas Building in Upper Sandusky Burned with Loss of $15,000.

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, May 13—A fire described as this city's worst in 25 years destroyed the Jevas business block on South Sandusky avenue here yesterday, causing damage estimated at more than $15,000.

The fire was said to have started from burning rubbish at the rear of the Farm Bureau implement store about noon and was brought under control two hours later, although Upper Sandusky firemen still soaked the smoldering walls throughout the evening.

Building Destroyed

The frame building, owned by Tom Jevas of 265 Oak street, Marion ,contained three business rooms and a second floor apartment, all of which were damaged beyond repair.

Mr. Jevas and his brother, John, were at work in their shoe repair shop when the fire started. The blaze believed to have started from a bon fire behind the Farm Bureau Co-Operative implement store, spread rapidly through the frame building, destroying rooms and contents of the Farm Bureau store, the shoe shop and the Solacoff restaurant and the second floor apartment occupied by Mrs. Virginia Solacoff.

Some furniture from the Solacoff apartment was removed undamaged and some wheeled implements was saved from the Farm Bureau store, but most of the contents of the building were lost.

Equipment Lost

The shoe repair equipment and a stock of new shoes were lost in the Jevas room. A portion of the loss is covered by insurance.

A brick building on the north side of the Jevas property was threatened as the flames spread but firemen and volunteer workers saved the building and limited damage to scorched window frames. The brick building housed the Steiner farm implement store.

Jevas purchased the South Sandusky avenue property here about a year ago. A brother, William, owns a shoe shop on North Main street in Marion.

RUSS PROPOSAL FOR PALESTINE SPURNED BY UN

Independence Plea Is Turned Down Despite Threat of Arab Boycott.

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 13—Despite a threatened Arab walkout, the political committee of the United Nations assembly today defeated a Soviet move to have a UN Palestine inquiry commission draft proposals for immediate independence of the Holy Land.

The vote was 26 against the Russian measure, 15 in favor, with 12 abstentions and two absences.

This meant that the inquiry commission would be given a free hand to consider all possible solutions of the Palestine problem without any special reference to the independence question.

Arab Boycott Considered

The vote came after Faris El Khoury, Syrian delegate, said outside the chamber that the Arab delegations were considering the possibility of walking out of the special assembly in protest against a majority stand on the Palestine question.

El Khoury, a leading spokesman for the five Arab states in the UN, told newsmen that if the present trend in the deliberation of the assembly's political committee continued, the Arabs would adopt a policy of "non-cooperation" with the work of the proposed UN Palestine inquiry commission. He said the Arab delegates might even leave the assembly.

No Final Decision

El Khoury specified that this eventuality was in the process of formulation and that the five Arab countries had not yet made their final decision.

Defeat of the Soviet proposal became increasingly likely after the committee late yesterday voted to give the proposed Palestine inquiry commission an entirely free hand in studying any question of Holy Land independence.

In taking this decision the committee tossed out five similar proposals, declaring in substance that the inquiry commission should bear in mind the principle that independence of Palestine should be the main purpose of any Holy Land plan.

Many delegates agreed that by giving the commission a free hand the political committee virtually administered defeat to the Soviet proposal.

The Soviet proposal provided that the inquiry commission draft a plan for immediate creation of an independent Palestine state and submit it to the regular session of the general assembly in September for action.

Schacht Convicted Of Being Nazi; Imprisoned

By The Associated Press

STUTTGART, May 13—Hjalmar Schacht, German financial wizard who was cleared of war crimes charges by the international military tribunal at Nuremberg seven months ago, was convicted as a major Nazi offender by a German denazification court today and sentenced to eight years imprisonment.

The verdict was announced by court president Fritz Lenz in a packed courtroom in the community singing hall where the former Nazi finance minister and Reichsbank president has been on trial for six weeks. The 70-year-old Schacht heard the verdict in stunned silence, his face drawn and white.

The court ordered the confiscation of all of Schacht's remaining personal fortune—officially estimated at 1,190,000 marks ($119,000)—except for 10,000 reichsmarks.

It also forbid him to hold any public office during the remainder of his life and deprived him of most of his civil rights for the next 10 years, banning him from voting in any election, practicing as an attorney, participating in any political activities, joining any political party, or joining any professional or economic organization.

The verdict, practically the maximum that could be imposed, means in effect that until Schacht is 80 years old he will be unable to hold any position socially or economically aside from the role of common laborer.

In imposing the prison sentence, the court decided to take into account the two years that Schacht already has been in custody, thereby reducing his actual term to six years.

If Schacht's health permits he will be compelled to perform some sort of labor during his prison term.

The prosecution contended that Schacht had joined Hitler's government willingly and set up the machinery that made financing the war possible.

VOTE ENOUGH TO OVERRIDE TRUMAN VETO

Measure Now Goes to Conference for Reconciliation with Tougher House Version.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—The senate today passed its controversial labor bill by a vote of 68 to 24—more than the two-thirds margin needed to override the presidential veto which some opponents have predicted.

The far-reaching measure, denounced by organized labor but generally endorsed by many industrialists, now goes to conference for compromise with a tougher bill approved by the house.

Then the compromise version will go to the White House, probably late this month.

Rejects Substitute

Shortly before the final vote the senate rejected 73-18 a substitute bill drafted by a group of Democrats who regarded it as the kind of legislation Mr. Truman would sign. Critics called it a "milk-and-water" bill.

Senator Taft (Ohio), chairman of the senate's Republican policy and labor committee, led the fight for the bill adopted.

Defeat of the substitute opened the way for a quick vote on the Taft bill.

Rejection of the substitute, which was tailored to meet President Truman's recommendations on labor legislation, was expected by Senator Murray (Mont.) and the 10 other Democrats who sponsored it. They presented the bill only to put themselves on record with a specific example of the kind of labor bill they believe should be adopted.

Both the senate and the house bill:

1. Outlaw the closed shop, under which the boss can hire only union members.

2. Permit the more common union shop when a majority of workers vote for it. Union shop agreements authorize employers to hire any one they choose, but workers must join the union shortly thereafter.

3. Prohibit jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts. A jurisdictional strike usually results from a fight between unions over which should do certain work. A secondary boycott is a union attempt to hit indirectly at an employer by forcing other employers to quit dealing with him.

4. Authorize the government to seek injunctions to block or stave off national emergency strikes, such as a coal or steel tie-up.

5. Create a new federal mediation agency independent of the labor department.

6. Make unions liable for unfair labor practices. Employers already are.

7. Require unions to register and file financial reports annually.

8. Make unions subject to suit in federal court for violation of contract.

9. Prohibit employer collection of union dues unless workers give their consent in writing.

10. Free employers of any obligation to bargain collectively with foremen.

11. Guarantee employers freedom of speech in dealing with employes so long as their statements are neither threatening nor coercive.

12. Outlaw union coercion of workers in organizing campaigns.

13. Allow employers to petition the national labor relations board for elections to determine which union shall represent their workers.

Permitted Closed Shop

Unlike the Taft bill, the substitute would have permitted the closed shop, under which employers can hire only union members. It made no provision for injunctions against national emergency strikes. The Taft measure does.

Both bills deny collective bargaining rights to a union if any officer can "reasonably be regarded" as a Communist or Communist sympathizer.

This provision was placed in the senate bill on adoption of an amendment by Senator McClellan (D-Ark). Before the final vote, Taft announced he would not push his motion, made yesterday, to reconsider the decision adopting McClellan's amendment.

Presiding officer Vandenberg named the following as conferees to meet with a house group to iron out differences in the versions of the two bills: Senator Taft, (R-Ohio); Ball, (R-Minn) Ives, (R-NY); Murray (D-Mont) and Ellender, (D-La.)

Senator Barkley (D-Ky) shouted to the senate today that house Speaker Martin (R-Mass) "en-

VET TRAPPED IN CAR 5 DAYS

Lies Injured Within 150 Feet of Busy California Highway.

By The Associated Press

MARTINEZ, Calif., May 13—A 26-year-old Navy veteran today described the horror of being trapped for five days in the wreckage of his automobile, less than 150 feet from a busy highway, almost dying of thirst with water only 10 feet away.

The man, Ernest Kenneth Steele, 26, an oil refinery worker of Richmond, Calif., is in critical condition and doctors are undecided whether his right arm, mangled in the crash, will have to be amputated.

He was rescued late yesterday by two power company linesmen stringing wire through Franklin canyon.

Steele, talking with highway patrolmen and newsmen, said his car left the road eight miles west of Martinez late Wednesday night when he fell asleep at the wheel while returning from a fishing trip.

Plunged Into Gully

The machine veered through a highway fence, traveled about 100 feet across a field and then plunged into a 35-foot gully. Steele was thrown from the seat but, when he regained consciousness, the next morning, he found his right arm was mashed and caught between the door and the side of the car as it lay on its side.

He was helpless, and in terrible pain.

"Every hour of every day I yelled," he said. "I didn't have anything to eat or drink except two packages of gum. I ate the last piece just before they found me."

His thirst grew intense, and he was tortured by the sight of water in a small creek bed only 10 feet from him.

Hears Fence Fixed

One morning he heard the hammer of a man fixing the fence through which his car had crashed. And all through the ordeal he heard automobiles passing on the highway—so close. But nobody heard his continual cries.

As Steele grew weaker and felt he could not last much longer he smashed the glass fuel bowl on the carburetor and salvaged a splinter of glass.

On the fender he scratched this message to his wife, Mae, 24.

"Don't forget I love you."

He thought of cutting off his arm to free himself, but he was unable to reach his knife with his left hand and sliver of glass was inadequate.

Doctors said Steele probably would have died of thirst and shock in a few more hours.

THREE PLEAD GUILTY TO FORGERY CHARGE

Marion and Richwood Trio in Court at Bucyrus.

Medford Marvin of near Richwood and Mrs. Mary Millisor and William Jarvis Jr. of Marion pleaded guilty to charges of forgery and were bound over to the Crawford county grand jury under bond when they appeared in mayor's court at Bucyrus this morning. Bond for Marvin and Mrs. Millisor was set at $2,000, and the bond for Jarvis at $1,000. None of the trio has furnished bond. They are expected to be held until the next grand jury session in August.

Jarvis was arrested by Marion police Monday on a warrant from Bucyrus police. He is charged with forging a signature on one of the checks from a Bucyrus firm which Mrs. Millisor cashed in Marion last Friday.

Marvin is also charged with automobile theft, but the charge has been filed by Marion police who are holding the auto he drove here last week from Florida. He had taken the vehicle "on trial" from a Miami, Fla., used car lot.

According to a report from Bucyrus, Marvin was formerly employed at the General Hydraulic Co in Bucyrus whose checks were cashed. Marvin told Bucyrus police a third check was stolen but that it had been destroyed.

PREMIER OF ITALY GIVES RESIGNATION

By The Associated Press

ROME, May 13 — Premier Alcide De Gasperi handed his resignation today to Provisional President Enrico De Nicola as Socialists and Christian Democrats charged each other with responsibility for the collapse of his coalition government.

A communique from the Christian Democratic premier's press office said De Gasperi was resigning because of Socialist attacks on him yesterday. The three-party coalition has been torn with dissension over Italy's debt problem.

De Gasperi's public works minister, Giuseppe Romita, said after a 50-minute extraordinary cabinet meeting that the premier's decision was taken because of a Socialist charge that he was deliberately fomenting a political crisis.

De Gasperi, who has presided over a coalition of Christian Democrats, Communists and Socialists for months, was expected to inform the constituent assembly of his action in a speech tonight.

Mansfielder Shot As Prowler at Chicago

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 13 — A man identified by police as Douglas DeHart of Mansfield, O., was shot and killed yesterday in a West Side rooming house.

Police said Walter Guertin, 59, proprietor of the rooming house, reported he found DeHart prowling on the second floor and shot him in the head with a rifle. Guertin asserted that DeHart lunged at him with a knife.

Police said identity was made from cards in the man's pocket, one of which listed a Mansfield, O., address as 84 Park avenue and a Chicago address as 617 West Madison street.

TELLS OF MAY LOBBY ACTIONS

ecretary of War Patterson Testifies of Attempts To Aid Garssons.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Secretary of War Patterson testified that former Rep. Andrew J. (D-Ky) sought his help on several occasions in behalf of the ,500,000 Garsson munitions

The prosecution summoned Patterson as a star witness in the ninth week of May's trial on charges of taking more than $55,000 in wartime bribes.

The trial with the 72-year old chairman head of the house military committee are munitions makers Henry and Murray Garsson and Joseph E. Freeman, Washington agent for the Garsson brothers.

Patterson told the jury that on March 24, 1945, May asked him to withhold an "E" award, for outstanding war production, to a Garsson plant, the Batavia (Ill) Metal Products Company.

Protested Cutback

He said May also contacted him about a cutback of a Batavia company contract in 1943 and, in September, 1945, called him to the hotel to protest the army's action in withholding $800,000 from the Erie Basin Metal Products Co., another Garsson firm. The money was held up pending renegotiation of the contract.

On cross examination, May's attorney, Warren Magee, asked:

"Isn't it a fact that Congressman May never asked you to let a contractor have a war contract?"

Patterson replied, "That's right."

Magee also asked:

"You received calls from other congressmen?"

"From Many Congressmen"

Patterson: "Many of them."

In telling of the conversation with May concerning the $800,000 withheld from the Erie Basin company, Patterson related:

"Congressman May said he was very busy himself and couldn't come over, and asked me to see him at his office at the capitol.

"When I got there Mr. May introduced me to two officers of the Metal Products Company. "I can't remember their names. They wanted the freeze of their funds lifted in interfering with the reconversion to civilian production."

Patterson said he told May's callers from the Erie company they had to take up their contract renegotiations problem with the proper division of the war department.

"Then I left," Patterson added.

MINE SAFETY METHOD

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 13—Disastrous coal mine fires could be prevented by better installation and maintenance of electric equipment, says E. F. Maurer, general superintendent of the Rail and River Coal Co., Bellaire, O. Outlining a five-point fire prevention program, Maurer told the coal exhibition and exposition of the American Mining congress yesterday that the greatest percentage of all mine fires were of electrical origin.

Tiger Woman Back With Double Locks Clamped On Room

By The Associated Press

PHOENIX, Ariz, May 13—Double locks, worked by two keys, each of which is entrusted to a different attendant, have been placed on the door to the room in which Winnie Ruth Judd, the "Tiger Woman" trunk murderess, is confined in the Arizona state hospital for the insane.

This was revealed today by Dr. John A. Larson, superintendent of the institution, following the escape and yesterday's recapture of the woman who had escaped twice before in the 16 years since she committed the murders for which she was found guilty.

Mrs. Judd's claim yesterday, after her recapture, that she fled the hospital because Dr. Larson refused to let her see her mother, a voluntary patient in the institution's hospial ward, on Mother's day, is without foundation, Dr. Larson said.

Recently Dr. Larson had ordered Mrs. Judd transferred from the infirmary ward.

"The real reason I ordered the transfer," he said, was because I found that she had recently beaten her mother and given her a black eye. This is verifiable by the records.

It was on Oct. 16, 1931 that Mrs. Judd shot and killed two women friends, Agnes Anne LeRoi and Hedvig Samuelson. She shipped their dismembered bodies in two trunks and a suitcase to Los Angeles.

Truman Message On Portal Due Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—President Truman will send a message to congress tomorrow on the portal-to-portal pay bill.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross, telling reporters this today, declined to forecast whether Mr. Truman will veto or sign the measure.

Ross told a news conference the President will accompany his action with an explanation.

Rail Freight Rate Decision To Cost Ohioans $6,000,000

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 13—Ohio shippers—and in the end the public—will pay upwards of $6,000,000 more a year for dry goods, shoes, dime store stuff and the like as a result of yesterday's U. S. supreme court decision upholding a 10 per cent freight rate increase for northern and eastern railroads, officials estimated.

The decision upholding an order of the interstate commerce commission also lowered so-called "class rates" applying to merchandise by the same figure in the south and west to the Rockies.

Kenneth Sater, special assistant attorney general who led Ohio's fight against the ruling, joined by eight other states, predicted one of the nine governors would call a conference immediately to determine the next step.

However, Ohio Governor Thomas J. Herbert, who was attorney general at the inception of the case and appointed Sater, said:

"After the supreme court speaks, there's not much more you can do."

William Blake, in charge of rail tariffs for the Ohio utilities commission, estimated the decision would cost Ohio shippers upward of $6,000,000 a year, and Sater commented that the Ohio stove industry probably would be particularly hard hit because it competes with southern factories.

OHIO HOUSE GROUP O.K.'S BONUS PLANS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 13—The house military affairs committee today added its approval to a senate resolution proposing a $300,000,000 bond issue to finance bonus payments to World War II veterans.

The committee's vote, recommending that the house approve the measure, was unanimous.

The house committee changed the resolution to make all veterans, regardless of rank, eligible for the bonuses. The senate had restricted payments to captain and ranks below.

The maximum bonus would be $400, based on $10 a month for domestic service ad $15 a month for overseas or sea duty.

If the legislature finally approves the resolution, it then would go before the state's voters for approval or rejection. It would constitute an amendment to the state's constitution.

The house committee also inserted an amendment authorizing the appropriation of $75,000,000 from the state treasury, which would reduce the amount of money to be raised through bonds.

The bonds, for 15 years' duration but callable at any time, would be backed by a tax on all real estate and tangible personal property.

DEMOCRATS SEEK UN APPOINTMENT ACTION

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Senate Democrats sought a foreign relations committee showdown today on President Truman's long-pending appointment of Francis Biddle as American representative on the United Nations economic and social council.

Their demand for committee action on the nomination of the former attorney general came at a time when their own as well as Republican ranks appear divided over the President's possible choice of Mark F. Ethridge, Louisville publisher, as directing heads of the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program.

Biddle's appointment has been

Sugar Stamp Date Advanced

No. 12 Valid June 1 Instead of July 1, Government Announces.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13 — The agriculture department announced today that Sugar Ration Stamp No. 12 for individual consumers will become valid June 1 instead of July 1 as originally planned. It will allow purchase of 10 pounds.

The department said that supplies from this stamp must last until Oct. 31, when prices and rationing controls will expire unless extended by congress.

Consumers ration stamp No. 12 is the second to be designated as a 10-pound sugar stamp. The first was No. 11 which became valid April 1.

The June 1 date was set for No. 12 in order to expedite movement of sugar into home pantries, while railway transportation is available.

Officials say they expect a shortage of freight cars for sugar after the bumper winter wheat crop starts moving to market late next month.

Sugar now is piling up in eastern refineries.

Other actions the government has taken to speed up sugar movement include:

Industrial users may apply for third quarter allotments June 1 instead of June 10, the date set earlier.

A regulation limiting inventories of industrial users to 30 days supply is suspended. Thus, such users may obtain full quarter's supply after their new allocation is determined.

The department explained that supplies from a big Cuban crop, now reaching a seasonal harvest peak, are being imported in large quantities.

The No. 11 stamp will continue to be valid after No. 12 becomes good.

The stamp is that called "spare" when the ration books were issued. Nothing except sugar is now rationed.

Lobbyists Banned From Ohio Legislative Floor

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 13—The boys who "button-hole" representatives at the rear of the house will be absent from their usual haunts for the rest of the current legislative session.

The house adopted a resolution by Majority Leader Paul L. McCormick (R-Logan) banning lobbyists from halls of the house henceforth during sessions. They will have access to the gallery, however.

McCormick said 201 lobbyists were registered with the secretary of state.

The resolution said the move was needed so "there may be no hampering or delay in expediting the work to finish the session" of the general assembly.

SLAYING A LA GANGLAND

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 13—Fred A. Baraky, 33-year-old minor police character and once - convicted gambler, was shot down in the street today in a slaying reminiscent of Detroit's roaring rum running era of the 1920's. Police expressed fears that his murder may be linked to a weekend crackdown in which officers claimed to have smashed an $8,000,000 gambling syndicate with roots deep in the city's underworld.

OHIOANS TO SUPPORT FEDERAL ROAD PLAN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13—Ohioans assured the public roads administration today of full participation in the federal farm-to-market highway program during the next year.

Rep. McGregor (R-Ohio), told a reporter that the state's plans were presented at conferences with Thomas H. MacDonald, public roads administrator; Murray Shaffer, state highway director, and George Thormyer, state highway engineer.

"The meeting was arranged," McGregor said, "to remove any doubt that Ohio is ready to match federal funds for the secondary road program during the 12 months beginning next July."

Shaffer informed MacDonald that the state has $1,200,000 in a matching fund and that plans are completed for a total fund of at least $3,814,000.

McGregor said the state officials hope to provide $4,480,000, the amount that can be set aside in federal funds for Ohio under the federal matching plan.

Meeting in McGregor's office, administrator MacDonald and Rep. McGregor were assured by Shaffer that his department is moving as rapidly as possible toward keeping Ohio's program in line with federal requirements.

Emphasizing the state's interest in developing farm-to-market highways, McGregor said that 73 of the 88 counties are participating in the federal aid program.

During the meeting, Shaffer submitted figures showing that Ohio's road mileage totals 100,000 and that 90 per cent of the traffic moves over 20,000 of that.

Ohio House Acts To Give More Money To State Municipalities

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O, May 13—The Ohio house acted today to grant local government more money for operating while the senate weighed a series of measures to revamp the liquor department.

Administration-backed bills up for a vote would boost local government allocations from $21,000,000 to $25,000,000 this year and allow cities instead of the state to tax amusement admissions nearly $3,000,000.

Sales tax distributions in 1948 would total $12,000,000, and the state would turn back to counties some $13,000,000 from the tax on deposits and shares of financial institutions.

Allocations from sales taxes would be based one-fourth on population and three-fourths on the combined municipal duplicate in counties, which then would distribute the money according to need.

Cigaret Levy Pending

A house-passed bill to return the state's $500,000 annual share of cigaret dealers fees to counties is pending in the senate. Another bid measure to provide $3,250,000 a year in state subsidies for care of tuberculosis patients was sent to a house-finance subcommittee.

Five bills for liquor department reorganization were introduced last night by Chairman Roscoe R Walcutt (R-Franklin) of the senate liquor investigating committee and another was due today.

The measures would:

Give the liquor board greater authority over the department and set up divisions of personnel, accounts, stores, purchasing, enforcement and permits.

Training Course Set

Require enforcement agents to pass a training course patterned after the state highway patrol.

Base the quota of permits on the last federal census instead of population estimates.

Provide for discharge of department employes who accept liquor, meals or gifts from permit holders or persons doing business with the department. Those making such gifts would be banned from doing business with the department.

Establish a department policy of "providing" potables but "not to encourage or promote the consumption of alcoholic beverages."

The senate elections committee recommended passage of a bill by Sen Carl D Sheppard (R-Summit) for congressional redistricting of the state by mid-February of 1951 on the basis of the 1950 federal census.

State Officials Named

The redistricting, which would eliminate a congressman-at-large would be done by the governor, secretary of state, auditor, house speaker and president pro-tem of the senate.

The senate passed a bill allowing Summit county commissioners to transfer a hill tract in Akron to commissioners of its metropolitan park district, and concurred in a house amendment to a measure allowing taxing subdivisions to refund up to 50 per cent of expiring bonds. The senate previously had authorized up to 75 per cent.

The house in night session completed passage of a bill by Sen C J Powell (R-Clark) allowing prosecution of a public official accused of bribery in his home county or that in which the offense was alleged.

Another bill passed and sent to the senate would increase salaries of Toledo municipal judges from $6,500 to $7,500 annually and boost those of deputy clerks.

A measure for creation of a transit authority in Cleveland which was defeated April 1 by a vote of 49 for to 69 against was reconsidered and passed in the house 74 to 39. An amendment to the approved bill would restrict the authority to Cuyahoga county.

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From ✓ STOMACH GAS
✓ SOUR FOOD TASTE
✓ ACID INDIGESTION
Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress.
Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food portions; else the food may ferment, sour, cause indigestion and gas frequently causes a terrible, broody, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, tiredness.
To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that BELL-ANS is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or acidity due to a non-organic disorder exists. This is due to the BELL-ANS formula which contains special and potent but entirely safe ingredients.
Also, BELL-ANS helps bring relief to your upset stomach in a jiffy. Don't suffer another day from indigestion, gas, sour stomach, heartburn, etc., if you are not completely satisfied after the first few days' use of BELL-ANS, return the empty package to us and we will refund your money in full. Social Affairs

A FOURTH unit of the Marion Garden club was organized when a group interested in gardening met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fillmore Young on Mt. Vernon avenue. Mrs. C. J. Zimmerman presided as temporary chairman and Mrs. Young talked on the organization and purpose of the new group. Mrs. Dale Lawrence was elected president, Mrs. Merle Hughes, vice president, Mrs. Clarence Weber, recording secretary, Mrs. O. B. Morrison, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Hugh Hay, treasurer. A meeting to select a name and complete further plans for organization will be held in the near future. The membership will be limited to 35. A social hour, with Mrs. Merle Hughes presiding at the tea table, followed the business session.

MRS. C. Z. ZACHMAN was installed as president for the 1947-48 club year when members of the Searchlight club closed the season yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Smith on West Church street. Mrs. T. H. Sutherland, president of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, was a guest and gave a talk on the activities of the organization. Mrs. O. R. Peters conducted the devotions on the theme, "Abiding." Reports for the year were given. Installed with Mrs. Zachman were: Mrs. Chester Brooks, vice president, Mrs. Leo Keller, recording secretary; Mrs. Marshall McKinistry, corresponding secretary. Serving as an executive committee next year will be Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Jess Stewart and Mrs. O. R. Peters and the program committee will include Mrs. Carson B. Shetterly, Mrs. L. A. Robinson and Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager. Mrs. Robinson presided as the installing officer. Tea was served following the business session.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Jack of 832 Uncapher avenue entertained at dinner Sunday honoring the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jack who recently returned from Daytona Beach, Fla., where they spent the winter. Present with the honor guest and host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Good and children, Frederick, Bobby and Vera of Toledo, Homer Bolen and Larry and Darrell Jack.

Members of the Happy Hour club honored their mothers Thursday evening with a party at the home of Mrs. H. Eugene Ernsberger of 598 Mt. Vernon avenue. The welcome was given by Mrs. Dale Kimbal, president, and the response was by Mrs. Paul Augenstein. For the program, Mrs. Dan Townsend gave a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Gale McDougle, and poems were read by Miss Ruth Kaufman and Mrs. H. E. Ernsberger. Contest prizes were won by Mrs. David Roberts and Miss Dorotha Lust, the guessing box by Mrs. Ona Lust, and a special prize by Mrs. John Gorenflo. Refreshments were served from a table decorated with lighted tapers in pastel shades, and serving were Mrs. Kimbal, Mrs. Pearl Green and Miss Dorotha Lust.

Those present were Mrs. David Roberts, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. A. D. Kaufman, Mrs. John Gorenflo, Mrs. John Schultz, Mrs. C. D. Mayers, Mrs. Paul Augenstein, Mrs. Ona Lust, Mrs. Dale Kimbal, Mrs. Pearl Green, Miss Dorotha Lust, Miss Ruth Kaufman, Mrs. Dan Townsend, Mrs. Gale McDougle and Mrs. H. E. Ernsberger.

A meeting of the Merry Clubsters was held Thursday evening at the home of Miss Emma Osternolt on Uncapher avenue. A pot-luck supper was served at a table decorated with a large bouquet of spring flowers. Officers were elected for the year as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, president, Mrs. Paul Seefle, vice president; Mrs. E. E. Luke, secretary and treasurer; Miss Maxine Rowe, assistant secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Edward Barnhart, reporter. A talk was given on cosmetics by Mrs. Albert Pace. Honors in cards were won by Mrs. E. E. Luke and Miss Maxine Rowe, a special prize went to Mrs. Harvey Woy, and the hostess was presented a gift from the club. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Elizabeth Moore on Owens street.

Miss Ruth Wise of South High street was hostess for a meeting of the McMillen O. G. club last evening. Miss Ruth Carr was a guest. Plans were made to draw names for secret pals at a meeting in the near future. Entertainment included a sketch, "Gab and Gossip," by Miss Wise and Miss Stella Brascos.

Couple Observe 60th Anniversary

A family dinner Sunday noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard of 247 Gurley avenue was in celebration of the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard of Waldo, former residents of Marion. Places were laid for sixteen persons at a table decorated with bouquets of yellow snapdragons and lighted with orchid and yellow candles, and centered with a large decorated cake. A number of friends and neighbors called in the afternoon.

For the occasion, the celebrant, Mrs. Howard, wore a green dress and was presented a corsage of white carnations tied with orchid ribbon by her grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard are parents of four children, Mr. Howard of the Gurley avenue address, Mrs. Ross Rengert of Waldo, Ivan Howard of University Park, Iowa, and Mrs. A. W. White of San Bernardino, Calif. The latter two were unable to be present for the occasion.

Weddings

The marriage of Miss Darlene Ruth Hutchinson and Ernest Craver, which took place April 25, is being announced today by the bride's mother, Mrs. Walter Naylor of 384 Chester street. Rev. Andrews read the ceremony in Emmanuel Baptist church with only the immediate families in attendance. The bride wore a cinnamon brown suit with aqua accessories and her corsage was of red roses. She wore a chatelaine, a gift from the bridegroom. Miss Celia Davis, her attendant, wore an aqua dress with brown accessories and a gardenia corsage. John Craver, brother of the bridegroom was the best man. The bride was graduated from the Claridon High school in 1948 and the bridegroom from the Altoona, Pa., High school in 1941. The couple went to New York City on their wedding trip. They are making their home at 176 North Seffner avenue.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Mrs. Pauline Rostorfer of Ridgeway, O., to Harry H. Jones of 1041 West Center street. The ceremony was read Saturday, April 26, at 8:30 o'clock in the morning in Kenton by Rev. Brown. The couple are residing at the East Center street address. Mr. Jones was formerly employed at the Kenton Foundry.

Rail Clerks Call For 20-Cent Hourly Raise

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 13 — AFL railway and steamship clerks need a 20-cent-an-hour wage increase "to counteract the drastic effect on our standards of recent inflationary rises in the cost of living," says George M. Harrison, their grand president.

Speaking yesterday to more than 1,000 delegates at the AFL brotherhood's quadrennial convention, Harrison said profiteering interests, big business, big farmers and big merchants have seen to it that inflation in prices "has wiped out the 30 cents an hour our union has won in wage increases since 1943."

As far as science can learn, Iceland had no aboriginal inhabitants.

Flames Gut House Near Crestline

Special to The Star

CRESTLINE, May 13 — The Crestline fire department answered a call early Monday night to the home of George Biglin three miles southeast of Crestline, where a fire had started in the garage, destroying the garage and contents, and spread to the house near by, gutting the interior of the house. Movable furniture was saved.

Only a child of the Biglins was home at the time the fire was discovered by a neighbor, Luther Shearer. Cause was unknown.

The play will be staged May 16 at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium, and includes the following seniors in its cast: Rebecca Blue, John Wiley, Barbara Lake, Mabel Warner, William Marsh, Tucker Smith Jr., Peggy Brewster, Robert Teets, Lilla Lee Pittman, Jo Ann Cramer, Evelyn Somerlot, Don Ransome, Everett Matlack Jr., Jeanne Fisher and Carl Norris. The production is directed by W. D. Cochran of the high school faculty.

Veeck Gift Consoles Boy Who Will Never Steal Second Again

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 13 — A couple of baseballs and a baseball cap were on their way today from Cleveland Indian President Bill Veeck to an 11-year-old Massachusetts lad who doesn't know yet he never again will steal second base.

The boy, Glenwood Brann Jr., of Malden, Mass., is recovering after amputation of both his legs —a result of a "stake-burning" game with playmates.

Veeck's first letter of sympathy to the boy was intercepted by Junior's dad who thus far has kept the bad news from the youngster.

So yesterday, Veeck, who lost a leg in a wartime accident wrote another letter without mentioning the boy's loss.

As soon as the doctors say he can be moved, Veeck said last night, "We'll invite him to one of our games in Boston . . . and we'll fix up a nice comfortable reclining chair so he can watch the game in comfort."

Senior Fellowship Entertains Mothers

The Senior High Fellowship of Trinity Baptist church introduced a new custom at the church Friday night when mothers of members were entertained with a mother-youth banquet. Bouquets of spring flowers and favors in pastel colors were a part of the decorations and color scheme. Women of the church with Mrs. Troy McClure and Mrs. Donald Grimm as co-chairmen, served the dinner.

Ronald Gorby acted as toastmaster, Mrs. Marvin Crabtree offered the opening prayer, and group singing was led by Mary Lou Swigart, with Mrs. Kenneth Albert at the piano. Following introduction of guests James McClaskey led devotions. Mrs. Albert and her daughter, Barbara, presented a piano duet, toasts to mothers were given by Cecil Brown and Billie Jean Faith, with Mrs. C. M. Gorby responding, and vocal solos were by Miss Swigart, accompanied by Miss Wanda McMahan. A "radio play" was presented by Miriam Merchant, Nina Crabtree, Barbara Albert, Mary Jane Taylor, Ann Dodrill and Norma Jean Albert. Mrs. J. B. Holloway closed with prayer.

SUGGESTS USE OF NEGLECTED PASTURES

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 13—Ohio farmers could support 1,000,000 more head of beef cattle, or their equivalent in other livestock, if they fixed up all the neglected pastures scattered over the state, an Ohio State university agronomist estimated today.

D. R. Dodd, who made the estimate on the basis of 25 years of field work with farmers, said that more than 3,000,000 acres could be turned into lush pastures and meadows worth 300,000,000 pounds of meat.

Most of the neglected land lies in the southern and eastern hill sections of the state, he said, but thousands of acres are spotted elsewhere. Some of the land already is in pasture, he added, but if improved could carry four times as much stock as is grazing on it now.

Meat and milk, he asserted, can be produced more cheaply from pasture than from any other feeding system, since the stock does the harvesting itself.

With proper schedules of permanent pasture, summer pasture, and meadow second growth, he estimated, stock can be fed away from the barn 180 days of the year.

Because improving pastures goes with good farming, the increase in the number of animals which could be fed from neglected land would not force farmers to buy much more grain for winter feed, Dodd said.

Iceland was first settled sometime before 800 A.D. by a small colony of Culdees or Celtic hermits from Scotland.

To Distribute Polio Pamphlet in Schools

As part of a nation-wide campaign to bring home to every parent facts about polio, the Marion county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will distribute a pamphlet about the disease to every school child in the county, Dr. Frederick Rea, chapter chairman said today.

Entitled "A Message to Parent About Infantile Paralysis," the bulletin lists polio precautions to be observed during the epidemic season, describes possible symptoms of infantile paralysis, and offers practical advice for the guidance of parents in times of polio epidemics.

This project, the sponsors point out, is designed to allay fear and panic, and merits the endorsement of every one interested in the welfare of the nation's youth.

It is planned to have distribution completed before the end of the school term in June, the month which in the North Temperate zone generally sees an upswing in polio cases that continues until the latter part of August or early September.

King Wouldn't Know His English on Co-Ed Lips

By HAL BOYLE

Associated Press Writer

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 13—Here is a sample of modern co-ed campus slang at the University of Missouri:

"I'm bushed! One of the yo-yo boys sitting next to me in a basket course tried to pass me his growl in a whizz quiz. 'Shoot a beat,' I told him because I didn't think it was a good lick.

Hal Boyle

"He was a four-wheeled personality but I would only go out with him strictly from hunger. Yeah, one of those 'get me' boys. Told me he had been breaking in a new ulcer and had the clunks from purple passions.

"Personally, I just thought he had rocks in his head—zero gizmo. You should have heard his snow job! Could he bloviate! Said he liked my lipsmack. Asked me to put my feet in the trough but I knew he just wanted to play kiss on the mouth.

"I gave him the fluff but he tried to twist my arm. Finally I had to tell him to drink his beer. What kind of a bimbo did he think I am? I've got my own swuttly. I'd never get the deep undying hots for that rah rah roll-itch."

Same Story-Boyle Era

Slang changes quickly. Here is the way a co-ed might have said the same thing when I was learning the king's English on this same campus fifteen years ago:

"I'm beaten down to the ankles! A wise guy sitting next to me in a tough course wanted to pass me his crib notes during a snap quiz. 'Nuts,' I told him because I thought it was a bad go.

"He was a jalopy jockey but am I that hard up for a meal ticket? Yeah, one of those 'big I' boys from way back. Told me he had the hangover willies from too much bottle worship.

"He was a screwball—a real washout. You should have heard his line! Asked me to put on the feedbag with him but I knew he just wanted to neck.

"I told him to go peddle his papers but he came back for more. Finally I just told him to dry up. What kind of a floozie did he think I am? I've got my own one and only. I'd never fall for that Joe College."

1890 Version

A nice young lady of the class of 1890 would probably have written her mother of the incident as follows:

"I am so wearied, Mother dear. A fresh young man seated next to me in a different course attempted to smuggle me his 'pony'—a translation of our Latin text he had no right to have—during an examination which I found easy to pass. 'Certainly not,' I informed him as I did not approve of any such improper action.

"He owns a horse and buggy, mother, but I would hesitate to go out in his company even to get a cup of tea. Yes, he is fearfully conceited. He explained that he was highly nervous from overindulgence in a beverage called the 'purple passion,' which I believe is a shocking mixture of grapejuice and alcohol. Our authorities, of course, do not approve of such conduct, nor, you may be sure, do I.

"I am convinced he is an eccentric individual with no quality of character. Mother dear, you should have heard the flattery he addressed me. It was so flatteringly exaggerated! He praised the natural color my my lips, comparing them to ripened cherries. He invited me to accompany him to dinner, but I realized that his true motive was a desire to shower his unwelcome attentions upon my person.

"I rejected his proposals but he renewed them more insistently. At length I found it necessary to request him to be silent. What nature of girl do you think he thought your daughter? As you know, I have already pledged my affections to another. Had even were this not so, I should never be able to give my heart into the keeping of that brash and pompous young man."

Oh, you kid. Twenty-three, skidoo!

Prospect Legion To Have Softball Team

Special to The Star

PROSPECT — At the regular Legion meeting last Tuesday evening, Harry Lauer reported on progress made in the organizing a Legion softball team for this season. Following the report by Mr. Lauer, Legion members voted to set aside $75 for starting expenses for the team. This money will be used to purchase balls, bats and other equipment for team members.

Other Legion plans for the future include sponsoring a movie at the Prospect theater and Memorial day services. Paul B. Gast is chairman of a committee planning Memorial day events.

It's Only Money

LAST SATURDAY the Senate finance committee recommended a four-billion-dollar income tax cut. The country digested the news that Greek-Turkish aid—$400,000,000 worth—had been approved by the house. The World bank, using money advanced by the United States, loaned France $250,000,000. An unnamed diplomatic source said the United States was willing to advance up to $30,000,000 to Iran. The President of the United States asked congress to set aside approximately $25,000,000 to start weeding out disloyal federal workers. Walter Lippmann warned the readers of his column that within a few months the United States would have to reestablish lend-lease at the rate of not less than five billion dollars a year.

These are typical samples of news about public finance. Frequently, such information seems to be dissociated from the day-to-day affairs of citizens; the sums mentioned are too large, the policies involved too intricate to be comprehended. But news about public finance never should be dissociated in this way, because every dollar must come from the production of the American people. Dollars have no value other than that put into them by the people's intelligence and labor. Five billion dollars' worth of lend-lease, for example, is approximately $40 for every man, woman and child in this country. Four billion dollars' worth of tax reduction, on the other hand, is approximately $30 per capita. It's only money, but it's the people's money, every dollar of it, not a politicians' abstraction, which is what it sometimes seems to be.

Our Mounting Fire Loss

THE PRESIDENT'S fire prevention conference reports the nation's prevention program is entirely inadequate. It finds that regulatory legislation is obsolete; that there are serious hazards in buildings; that schools are not properly training students in fire safety; that departments have neglected the importance of prevention campaigns, and that there is insufficient research to provide the latest information.

The conference brought forth plenty of evidence to back up its findings. Fire loss has increased every year since 1934. Last year the toll was 10,000 lives and $461,487,000 worth of property. The 1947 figures are running well in advance of those.

National fire prevention conferences can point out the reasons for such losses and they can outline corrective measures, but they cannot go much farther than that. Fire prevention is a community problem, but even more it is a problem for the individual property owner and tenant.

American Revolutionists

ASIDE FROM minor details, the house and senate now agree with President Truman on a policy of assistance to governments friendly to the United States.

This policy has been adopted in connection with congressional authorization to the executive department to spend up to $400,000,000 for economic and military aid to Greece and Turkey. Requests for other authorizations will be forthcoming soon.

The congressmen knew that and they knew that compliance with this so-called Truman Doctrine was a decision as fraught with consequences as Franklin D. Roosevelt's destroyer deal, whereby the United States became an ally of Britain, or the original lend-lease act, whereby the United States went to war against Germany, Italy and Japan.

But there is another similarity with those fateful decisions which has occurred to many congressmen and their constituents. The United States went to the assistance of Great Britain, and subsequently to the assistance of all governments opposing the Axis powers, because no other decision was possible without betraying the principles and heritage of the American people.

The Truman Doctrine is, in other words, only a restatement of the American policy of advancing the cause of popular freedom everywhere on earth—the most revolutionary doctrine ever formulated.

Just Asking

NOW THAT Secretary Marshall has been appointed an honorary member of the Class of 1947 at Wellesley college, the question arises as to what responsibilities and privileges this honor entails. Is it akin to being an admiral in the Nebraska navy without even knowing a binnacle from a pinnacle? Is it like being a Kentucky colonel and never getting nearer an army post than Churchill Downs on Derby Day?

Or does being an honorary Wellesley class member entitle the dignitary to participate in the Greek dances on baccalaureate day, and mayhap even run anchor on the daisy chain? Or is the honor presented in anticipation of graduation day when the honorary classman wears cap and gown and gets some letters to affix after his name in return for one (1) free speech?

The foregoing questions are not asked in a spirit of petulance. They are motivated only by a wholesome curiosity about honorary memberships in general.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

G.O.P. Tax Cut Move Fought by Bureaucrats.

WASHINGTON, May 13—The Republicans are running headlong publicity race on their agreed plan to cross their cost conservatively in the $37½ billion Truman budget and their program to afford some immediate reduction to the taxpayer from the terrific wartime rate which are the most oppressive of all history.

You would think even moderate steps would be immensely popular but not under the game which the federal bureaucrat pressure group has built up in congress making all this out to be something for the rich.

This begging palaver which has absorbed the congressional debate, much print and a lot of air, runs like this: the Republicans will never be able to save the $6 billion which the house demanded, or the $4½ billion which the senate demanded, or the $5¼ billion for which both houses are working. The house is cutting, but the senate is putting back. (Fact is the senate cut even more than the house in the labor-security appropriation, but is restoring some of the pet item irrigation and flood projects which the house eliminated from the interior bill. The house has cut $1.2 billion so far on about $15 billion of appropriations. You cannot tell yet how much the Republicans will save, but they will probably fall short considerably of hopes.)

Obstacles

The reason the Republicans cannot cut is because $11 billion must go for military and $5 billion for fixed interest charges. (The military being incorrectly stated. But after defense and interest, there remains $21 billion on which to whittle.)

Ergo: cutting is all a matter of opinion; if you want to cut the cultural radio program to Russia, alright; but every time you cut you must eliminate some government activity. (The truth is the Truman employes' pressure group with aid of the union congressmen are scaring the daylights out of all congressmen, making them believe the world will not turn unless the bureaucrats get the money they want. Particularly their campaign is directed toward making Republican congressmen fear for reelection unless all government privileges in their home districts are maintained. Thus has all government activity been made sacrosanct and indispensable.)

More Palaver

On taxes, the prevailing palaver holds the Republicans have too raw a help-the-rich bill and had to revise their middle bracket in the senate finance committee to make it look better. The Republican tax program is all to help the rich they must disguise it. (The rates deny this on their face, as they recede from 30 per cent reduction on the low incomes down to 10 per cent on large incomes. Furthermore, it is objectively true you cannot run a capitalistic system without capital, although Mr. Roosevelt tried to run it with government capital, incidentally deficit government capital. Yet capital can only be furnished by people who earn surplus money.)

Under the pressure of this distorted propaganda, the whole Republican program, in what seems to be a genuine public interest, has been put on the defensive in publicity before the public. They will no doubt effect it anyway. Whatever deficiency in economies may result from the pressure group scare-and-smear campaign on the difficulties of economizing—these will be more than made up by the discovery that the Truman-treasury budget estimates of last January are wrong already. The discovery was made by Colin Stam, a non-political actuary with the joint congressional committee who figures national income payments next year at $170 billion, $2 billion more than the treasury. Treasury is inclined to excuse itself by saying its estimates were made too early, but it has not altered it stand against economies or tax reduction in accord with the new figures. Government never curtails or changes. We still have here in government use the temporary buildings erected for the first World war.

Always Difficult

Thus do genuine attempts to bring the government mildly into some sort of reasonable postwar fiscal status, often meet with failure from the current Tobias Lears of national politics. The truth is Washington politics have always been able to stop every effort to lessen the tremendous and always increasing costs of government, now above three times higher than the spending Mr. Roosevelt ever dreamed.

Just a Minute

Speech Is Not As Free As Formerly

The rate of speech of the average woman has dropped from 175 to 160 words a minute in the last five years, a survey by the National Institute of Human Relations reveals.

How refreshing, in these days of labor unrest, to find one slowdown which you can be sure isn't deliberate.

Women are talking as long as ever . . . , they just aren't saying as much.

Men the survey reveals, speak an average of 150 words a minute, but only, it course, when given the opportunity.

In this connection, women traditionally like the strong, silent type for husbands because then there are fewer interruptions.

In fact, it is most always the case that citizens who are known as "men of few words" get a lot of practice around home.

The fact that she is now talking slower than formerly doesn't bother the average woman too much. She's going to speak her mind even though it necessitates overtime.

Tary is being cut 5 per cent and of course the government recaptures much of its interest payments by its taxes on government bond interest, so these factors are

Private Pump Priming

By RAYMOND MOLEY

NOTHING so clearly shows how completely congress and the administration have discarded the New Deal as their present conflict over the budget. They are both seeking to ward off a possible recession. They both believe it can be prevented by spending—pump priming, if you wish. But they disagree about the time the spending is to be accelerated. And the disagreement about time is based on the political campaign of 1948.

Neither Republican nor Democratic politicians are expert in the interpretation of economic trends. But they know very well how much political campaigns depend on economic conditions. And they know that spending gives at least a temporary stimulus to business.

Republicans want a tax cut this year, and they are driving relentlessly in that direction. The President wants no tax cut this year, but it may be assumed that he will enthusiastically favor one next January.

Hope for Diversion

Republicans figure that, if taxpayers are saved $3,000,000,000 or more in the present tax bill, a lot of money will flow into purchases this year. Sales in the second half of the year will rise, and, it is assumed, a recession will be prevented or will be postponed until 1948. That recession, if it comes, will be happily christened by Republicans as a Truman recession—to the great embarrassment of our President as he seeks another term.

On the other hand, the President would prefer to have the recession this year. That is, if we are to have one at all. Then, with a balanced budget and possibly a better housing program and a breaking of many bottlenecks, he might start things off next January with the happy news of a tax cut. It is probable that his many advisers have told him that business can start moving in 1948 and that by November everyone will happily vote the Democratic ticket.

This is an exceedingly simple explanation of the simple economic thinking of politicians. But in their defense it should be said that they are probably just as confused by the chorus of economic soothsayers as are the rest of us. And it may be that they are correct in believing that the biggest factor in the future of business is what happens to the budget.

Operations Analyzed

Politicians are probably right, too, in disregarding New Deal panaceas in the face of a cloudy future. When government income exceeds expenditures, government spending loses its meaning, even the meaning Keynes and his American prototypes have so often given it. For government pump priming was always based on deficit spending. That is, the government produced money and spent it, hoping to pay the debts later.

But when you spend what people are currently paying in taxes, you merely take a big slice away from the people's purchasing power. If you cut taxes and let the people keep their money, they will spend it for goods. In short, the people will prime the pump themselves.

SAN JOSE, Calif.—Del Maas noticed how kibitzers always seem to spot winning moves—when checked players cannot. So he tried sitting beside—instead of opposite—his opponent, to get a kibitzer's-eye view. Result: "I beat him easily, and he is a better player than I." Maas said he's never heard of the stunt before he dreamed it up.

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday, May 13, 1937.

A living wall of cheering humanity lined the 14-mile suprise post-coronation tour of London made by the newly-crowned King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

John W. Thew, 75, one of the men who led in the development of real estate in Marion died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Huling of Marietta.

Less than two hours after he was presented an American Red Cross first aid certificate in ceremonies openeing a highway first aid station in a garage where he was employed, C. E. Almendinger, through his knowledge of first aid, administered artificial respiration methods to save the life of three-year-old Joan Augenstein of Prospect who had fallen into the muddy Scioto river.

Mrs. E. E. Parish was elected leader at a meeting of the Silver Cross circle of King's Daughters at the home of Mrs. M. L. Wilson of Harding Highway E.

Robert Everett of Agosta was named president of the Marion County Junior Fair Board.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Friday, May 13, 1927.

Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Snyder's husband, Albert Snyder, magazine editor, were sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing the week of June 20. Mrs. Snyder, penitent, voiced the belief that she would be able "to beat the rap."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thibaut entertained the Forget-Me-Not club at their home on Lake street.

Miss Dorothy Oliphant was hostess to the T. T. G. club at her home on South State street.

Marion Lodge of Masons arranged for its annual sunrise service May 30.

Mrs. Clara Geer, whose appointment as school nurse by the Child Conservation league in 1920 was regarded as having paved the way for child welfare work in the schools, spoke at a meeting of the league held at the home of Mrs. Fred Warner on Girard avenue.

French-British Leadership

By WALTER LIPPMANN

THOUGH money for radio broadcasts and printing is needed so that the voice of America may be heard in foreign lands, our greatest need is to have something definite, clear, and convincing for that voice to say. There would be little opposition in congress to an appropriation if it were not for the feeling that the men who conduct our propaganda have little to do with the making of our policy, and that the sales department of the government is, so to speak, writing advertisements about goods for which the production engineers have just begun to make the first blueprints.

As for the customers abroad, they are undoubtedly confused and suspicious, partly no doubt because the rival firm misrepresents us but chiefly because we sound so hot and bothered when, as a great power, they expect us to be cool and definite. Mr. Benton's difficulties with congress and with the opposition abroad will diminish when his chief, Secretary Marshall, has had time to form and to organize a concrete American program for the settlement of the war.

The elements of such a program have, I believe, gradually emerged from the vast and intricate debates, and can be formulated now as the basis for further discussion. They could, I think, be stated in some such way as this:

ONE—The division of the world into two great coalitions—one with its center in Moscow and the other with its center in Washington—is only apparent. The world cannot be divided in this way. The coalitions canot be organized. The nations of Europe will resist the idea that they are the satellites of the two non-European great powers, and that their continent is the predestined theater of a Soviet-American conflict. Insofar as the "Truman Doctrine" consciously or unconsciously treats Europe in this fashion, it is an obstacle to the making of peace and is destructive of American influence on the making of peace.

TWO—The revival of Europe under the leadership of Great Britain and France, now the principal European powers, is necessary. There can be no German settlement except within the framework of a European settlement. The political and economic unification of Germany is neither possible nor safe except within the framework of a European economic union, and of enough European political union to provide the primary guaranties of the German settlement. The Russian and American guaranties of German good behavior will have to be secondary to the European guaranty.

THREE—Though in the end the unity of Europe must comprehend the whole of Europe, a partial unity is better than none at all. The unity of western Europe alone cannot be self-supporting and solvent. It will require artificial support from the Western Hemisphere, principally from the United States. But if the support is given on conditions which promote and induce unification, the partial union of western Europe will exert immense attraction from eastern Europe.

FOUR—These considerations enable us to state the definite terms upon which we could propose to settle the Soviet-American conflict. Our object is the revival of Europe as an independent power in the world. To attain this object we shall have to provide the equivalent of lend-lease for a term of years as the necessary working capital, obtainable nowhere else, for a European economic union.

The Russian contribution will have to be the military evacuation, simultaneously with a British, French and American military evacuation, of the continent. The armies must go home, leaving behind them only token forces in Germany and at sensitive and unsettled points such as Trieste and the Greek frontier. The military evacuation of Europe would have to be followed by agreement that all European states may enter the European economic union.

In return for that, we could afford to finance some German reparation payments, and to provide some credits, to the Soviets.

In the Middle East we should propose a new treaty covering the Dardanelles, the borders of Greece and Turkey, the sort of Saloniki, and the oil concessions of Iran.

Such a settlement is, I believe, ultimately attainable because it reflects the actual balance of power, which neither can alter radically, between the Soviet Union and the United States. The Red Army is deep into Europe. The settlement calls for its withdrawal to the frontiers of the Soviet Union. We cannot compel it to withdraw. On the other hand, we can prevent it from advancing farther because of our ability to strike at the vital centers of Russia. The settlement would recognize the military deadlock.

To this settlement the United States would contribute financial support, largely by peacetime standards but insignificant by wartime standards. This assistance would ransom Europe from the armies of occupation, would revive the most highly civilized continent in the world, would enable Russia to obtain help in her own reconstruction which she can obtain in no other way, and would enable this country to avoid a chronic depression caused by unsalable surpluses of goods.

A program of this kind proposing a concrete settlement would, if it were persistently, patiently, and thoroughly expounded and advocated by the United States government, be very hard to misrepresent, and very hard to reject.

The voice of America would begin to speak a language that the weary, the hungry, and the frightened are longing to hear.

The Once Over

If a GI Operated the UN Way

"Hold this position at all costs!' Under the captain barked, as the enemy charged.

"May I have a restatement of that?" asked the GI.

"Hold this position to the death!" yelled the skipper. "Victory depends on it."

"Can you put it in the form of a resolution?" asked the GI.

"Resolution?" demanded the officer.

"Yes, sir," replied the GI. "I feel the rules of parliamentary procedure should be followed lest we be too hasty and leave ourselves open to charges of not following the democratic concept."

"Consider a resolution put and carried," snapped the captain. "Resolved that you take your stand on this river's edge and do not budge an inch."

"May I interrupt at this point," begged the dogface.

"For what purpose?"

"I wish to amend the resolution. In the form in which you put it it was too sweeping."

* * *

A couple of shells exploded nearby, filling the tops of dirt into the air.

"Keep cool. Get a grip on yourself! This is a trying moment," said the captain.

"If the captain pleases, may I suggest a change of procedural form here. It seems to me that what we have in mind might be achieved by pursuing a somewhat different course of action to which more thought has been given," said the GI.

"As your superior officer..." began the skipper.

"What I mean," said the GI, "is that the proposal as outlined, needs clarification."

"But..."

"It is my idea that at this point it might be well to appoint a committee..."

"Committee!" roared the captain, as another shell exploded.

"Yes, a sort of consultant committee, perhaps," said the GI, "to go over the whole proposition and decide whether it is in the best interests to hold this position now or whether from a long range viewpoint..."

"Get going with that mortar!" ordered the captain.

"I object to using mortars at this time."

"Why?"

"They are not on the agenda for today."

"They are."

"Look!" the skipper hissed suddenly. "Dozens ahead! Tanks!"

"I do not recognize tanks at this point in the proceedings," insisted the GI. "They are not scheduled. Their consideration now is premature. I suggest they be disregarded until a later date, say six months from now."

Now the break came through. Big tanks, small tanks, enemy guns and hordes of infantrymen.

The GI remembered nothing until he found himself on a litter hours later.

"You'll be all right. Just be quiet," a voice was saying.

"Interpretation! and only in French and English," said the GI.

Cotton Corners

By TRUMAN TWILL

Dear Nephew: Your aunt is over in Fox township sponging off her relations this week and won't be home till tomorrow night. I have been doing my own housekeeping, and don't think I haven't had fun, because I have. I have mapped housekeeping ahead 50 years.

Take the single matter of dishwashing. Women are always bothering about getting dishes washed and pestering men to help them. You think they had been put on earth to take care of dishes, instead of dishes being here to make things more convenient for women. Well, I got that one licked. I keep a washtub full of grease-dissolving solution and dump the dishes and pans in there until I get enough to make it worthwhile. Then I dip the darned things in hot water, pile them in a drying rack, turn on the fan—and it's all over in a half hour. I could do the dishes for a whole week in an hour, but it would take is plenty of dishes, and believe me we've got plenty. I could go for a month without washing one.

Likewise with beds. There is no reason for fussing with beds. Me, I don't care what a bed looks like as long as it feels all right. When I get up in the morning I turn down the covers. When I get in at night I turn them back. That's all there is to that. Fortunately, I am an easy sleeper and do not thrash around. I just lie there and sleep. Think of the time I'd save on bed-making! I'll bet you that if you add it to the time I'd save by not sweeping and not messing around with unnecessary things, and so on I could show every housewife how to retire while she still has her figure. She could then have a career in a junk yard or a pickle factory while her husband loafed.

What I am getting at, the long way round, is that the way to make housework lighter is not to give women more gadgets for doing more things that don't need to be done. No sir, the way to take the cross off the bent shoulders of our overworked housewives is to give them some instruction in the art of being adjusted to their environment. Housework is a problem in philosophy. If all a woman can think of to do with her time and energy is knock herself out to be a slavey, then that's what she is—a slavey. I do hereby proclaim and set thereto my left pan hand and seal that if I were a woman—which God forbid should happen to me at my age—I'd take a dim view of housework.

In short, I'd emancipate myself by shortcuts. There'd be darned little time wasted on silver polish. While the stupider women were wearing their fingers to the bone over a hot stove, I'd be sitting on the back of my neck filing my nails. I'd file 'em now if I could find the file, but I mislaid the dad-blasted thing after using it to pry open the alarm clock with I broke yesterday. It's around here somewhere, but I can't lay my hands on it. When your aunt gets home and straightens up this clutter that has accumulated in her absence she will find it, and if you see what I mean. Your aunt is one of the more intelligent slaveys. On her, housework looks good.

We're having terrible weather but nothing I could say would add anything to what I have already said, so skip it and give my very best regards to the family.

HOME GROWN BEAUTY

Editor of The Star Even though the beauty of Marion county is not highly advertised as is that of other sections of the country there is right now, at its best three miles north of the Marion city limits on Route 4 as pretty a sight as any Chamber of Commerce ever dreamed.

Here a meandering creek divides a gently rolling meadow, and a clump of willows add accent If the May day is cold or cloudy you will see only the contented cows grazing on the newly-green grass But if the day is sunny and warm you might think a late snowstorm has taken over. For there spring beauties (claytonia Virginica) grow by the thousands, so thickly that the meadow is covered and we wonder if the cows are able to find the grass or if they are relishing this banquet of flowers.

This early spring wild flower is one of the few that are able to survive in grazing land Indeed, it grows almost universally, being found in parks, along roadsides, in deep woods as well as in open meadows Although it is not the first flower of the year to bloom, we have found it flowering in Marion county as early as March 17 However the first of May usually finds it in full bloom and since the flower head is a loose raceme (several flowers, each on its own stem along a central stem with the lowest flowers blooming first and so on up the stem) one plant remains in bloom for a ... of two or three weeks While it is an appearance of white from a distance if the flowers are examined at close range we find that ... [illegible] ... and are some ... all pink.

The spring beauty grows from a small tuber and is often said that these tubers were eaten like potatoes by the Indians But at best each ... three of these small bulbs and it is unlikely that the plant is more ... years old ... growth ... the spring And perhaps its greatest survival value is the fact that even though the flower is picked with one leaf there is a secondary leaf which carries on the manufacture of food for the plant.

The dainty flower is one we all associate with our childhood so for old times sake take a little stroll on the next warm sunny day and see the spring beauties at their best along Route 4, three miles north of Marion on the right hand side of the road and a mile in the beauty of Marion county.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Milder Form.

Penicillin is never more life-saving than when used against bacterial endocarditis, a serious infection of the heart valves and lining membrane It is caused by one of the strep germs known as green strepto cocci, or, more technically, as Streptococcus viridans.

Formerly, these deadly germs entrenched themselves on the heart valves, no treatment could rout them and the outcome of the disease was always fatal Now if penicillin is given early and in large enough doses the majority of cases can be cured.

Moreover the use of penicillin helps prevent a great many cases from developing The heart which has been previously damaged by rheumatic fever seems especially subject to invasion by strep viridans.

This germ is often found in the mouth and air passages Here it does no particular harm But if it gets into the blood stream, the story is different Such a simple thing as the pulling of a tooth may give these germs their means of entry into the blood, and if the patient has had rheumatic heart disease, they find it very easy to attack his previously damaged heart valves For example, when a tooth is extracted the germs present in the tooth socket may enter the blood stream and lodge on one of the heart valves previously damaged by rheumatic fever For this reason it has been advised that all persons suffering from rheumatic fever or rheumatic heart disease receive treatment with penicillin before having a tooth extracted or having any operation on the nose or throat.

As a matter of fact it has been noted that of bacterial endocarditis about one half of the cases develop after a tooth extraction or an operation on the upper air passages Thus if the patient is given penicillin before these operative prodeures the disease may be prevented.

Of course, the patient with rheumatic fever should always be under the care of a physician Penicillin has not been found effective in controlling this disease Rheumatic fever may start suddenly or gradually with tiredness pain in the joints, and mild fever The child who develops it may lose weight have a poor appetite and pale skin During the active stage of this condition, complete rest in bed is important To prevent a recurrence of the condition, the prevention of sore throat is important.

A person with rheumatic heart disease should be sure to inform his dentist of the presence of the condition before any tooth extractions are carried out, so that the necessary treatment with penicillin may be administered to help prevent bacterial endocarditis.

Should bacterial endocarditis occur very large doses of penicillin, as shown by Dr Leo Loewe of Brooklyn will bring about a cure in most cases In fact, he was the first to recommend massive doses of penicillin in the treatment of this disease and we have been guided by his recommendation in our work with penicillin.

Junior Red Cross Council Hears Reports

Annual reports were given at a meeting of the City-County Junior Red Cross council Saturday afternoon in the office of the Marion County Chapter of the American Red Cross Mrs William K Hamor, chairman of Junior Red Cross work, presided.

Reports showed that 250 gift boxes for children overseas had been filled by the members and it was announced that to date $78.81 had been turned over to the National Children's fund, and that three still receive schools to report. Letters of appreciation were read from the Waddell Ladies Home for favors made by the members and also from Greece for gift boxes.

Jean Hinton and Donald Kungel of Edison Junior High school, Jill Pluchel of Vernon and Agnes Hildebrandt of Central, who will represent the junior chapter at the national convention at Cleveland June 9 to 12, were presented.

Meet your silent partner

Maybe you haven't thought of the railroads as your partner, Mr. Businessman. Yet they have had an interest in your business for a long time now.

It has been their job to keep goods moving from your suppliers to you—and from you to your markets. It has been the railroads' responsibility to provide fast, adequate, dependable transportation of all the products needed to keep America "in business."

The railroads must expand so that their capacity matches your growth; they must progress so that you can have even higher standards of service. But to continue to expand and progress in the American way—through private capital and private ownership—there must be a fair return on investment. Here is what railroads are faced with:

Since 1939 payrolls are up over 50%
Costs of supplies and materials up 60%
Freight rate increases average only 17%

And yet the cost of railroad service to you is less today than it was 25 years ago.

As a result, your railroads expect to earn only about 3% on their investment in 1947. We think you will agree that 6% is a minimum profit for any business that must constantly provide for maintenance, new equipment, improved facilities. Your railroads need the opportunity to earn that 6% for continued and improved service to you.

NAVY CLUB PLANS MEMORIAL SERVICE

Event To Be Held May 25 at Forest Glen Park.

It was announced at the regular meeting of the Marion Navy club Monday night that plans are being completed for the annual Naval memorial service to be held Sunday, May 25 at Forest Glen Memorial Park. The observance this year will climax a week's activity "Operation Naval Reserve" during which time the Navy is attempting to enlist 1,100,000 men in the V-6 reserve to man the "mothball fleet," in case of extreme emergency. Boatswain's Mate Howard Curtis, local Navy advisor, was enrolled in the club and gave a short talk outlining the Navy's plan pertaining to this "Operation."

Alfred Whittington, club commandant, also announced that the sheriff's office, Exchange Club and the Navy Club would sponsor the W. G. Wade Shows, on the Drake lot, the week of June 9-15 for welfare fund purposes.

Delegates Whittington, Henry Uline, Harold Haughn and Harold Metzger were given club instructions for the national reunion to be held in Milwaukee June 6, 7 and 8.

Work of redecorating the Navy club rooms, simulating a ship at sea is progressing nicely and it is planned to hold a "christening party" on June 23.

The commandant also announced that Father Neptune, Davy Jones and party would be aboard for the next meeting May 26.

During the social hour Dwight Altman and Forest Roush won honors and Hal Pickett was consoled with "sympathy chits" only.

Fred Shade Stricken In Morrow County

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, May 13—Fred Shade, 75, died, in the home of a son, Carl Shade, two miles north of Mt. Gilead at 3:45 a. m. today. He had been ill six weeks. Born Dec. 18, 1871, in Congress township, he was a son of Henry and Hannah Cypher Shade. He was a retired farmer, made his home with his son, and was a member of the Bryn Zion church near here. Surviving with the son in whose home he died are two other sons, John and Ward Shade, both of near Mt. Gilead, a foster son, Herbert Yoha of Los Angeles, Calif., four grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Belle Jenkins of Springfield. Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2 p. m. in the Bryn Zion church and burial will be in Bryn Zion cemetery. The body was brought to the Craven funeral home here.

Policeman Questions Parrot in Burglary

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 13—Patrolman Leo Wolff questioned a parrot today in the hope of getting a clue to the identity of the person who ransacked a house but he didn't even get "the bird."

Jimmy the parrot tried to be helpful and he accepted the crackers Wolff fed him, but the only names he called were those of friends of Mrs. Jimmy Glassmeyer, who reported the attempted burglary.

Mrs. Glassmeyer said she did not think anything had been taken, although every drawer had been emptied. She said the intruder apparently sought her two large diamond rings.

The woman discovered her home ransacked when she returned with her infant child shortly before midnight.

Marion Students In O.S.U. Pledge Test

Students from Marion and nearby communities were among the young men pledged by Ohio State university campus fraternities during April, a bulletin from the university's bureau of public relations reports. Marion students included Robert M. Miller and Donald E. Sloan, pledged to Delta Chi and Paul Robert Porter, Delta Upsilon.

Phillip Lee Laishley of Crestline was pledged to Delta Chi and Calvin Kendal Muthcheler of Oceola and John R. Mitchell of Ostrander to Alpha Zeta.

SOCIETY HEARS TALK ON DIESEL ENGINES

LaGrange, Ill., Man Speaks Before Marion Group.

Warren A. Thomas, manager of the diesel locomotive training center of the Electromotive Corp., of LaGrange, Ill., a subsidiary of the General Motors, Corp., discussed the construction and operation of diesel engines when he appeared as principal speaker last night for a meeting of the Marion Chapter, Ohio Society of Professional Engineers.

The dinner meeting, held in Hotel Harding, was attended by 48 members and guests of the Marion chapter.

Motion pictures of the development of diesel engines were shown in connection with Mr. Thomas' talk. He described the operation of diesel engines as used on the Erie railroad, tracing their use by railroads back to 1935. He told the engineers the Marion Erie diesel shop was the best equipped and best maintained of any railroad shop in the United States.

A short business meeting preceded the address. Richard Ricketts of Delaware, trustee of the Marion chapter, reported on a trustee's meeting in Columbus last week. Next regular meeting of the chapter will be June 9.

LABOR

gaged in a form of intimidation against the President of the United States" by declaring that there will be no effort to pass new legislation if labor and tax bills are vetoed.

Barkley told his colleagues he does not know whether Mr. Truman will be willing to accept the house-approved labor bill or the milder version now before the senate.

Wagner Wants Veto

Senator Wagner (D-NY), author of the national labor relations act which the senate bill overhauls, predicted earlier that the pending measure would pass. But he expressed (a) hope that Mr. Truman will veto it and (b) confidence that a presidential dissent could not be overridden.

The senate agreed to begin its final round of voting at 11:30 a. m. First up were any last-minute amendments and the substitute bill sponsored by 11 Democrats.

Supporters of the alternative proposal conceded defeat hours in advance of the vote. One of them, Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah), said bluntly: "We're licked."

Their only purpose was to get on record with the kind of bill they think the senate should pass.

Phone Firm Burdened By 3,840,000 Nickels

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, May 13—Officials of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company today found themselves unhappy custodians of 3,840,000 nickels—or $192,000—which have accumulated since the telephone strike began April 7.

The nickels, collected from pay phones, have been piling up because union crews of an armored car service ordinarily used to transport the money to the bank, have refused to cross picket lines of the Southwestern Telephone Workers union.

CARL H. LEHNER

LEHNER NAMED HEAD OF DISTRICT GROUP

Two Marion County Officials Chosen by Association.

Members of the Central Northwestern Commissioners association, meeting in Upper Sandusky last night, named two Marion county men to head their organization for the coming year.

Carl H. Lehner, Marion county commissioner, was elected president of the association, succeeding Stanley Miller, commissioner of Delaware county, and W. S. Guthrie, clerk of the board of Marion county commissioners, was elected secretary-treasurer. Mr. Guthrie, who replaces Loren Garman of Hardin county, previously served as secretary-treasurer of the association from May 1941 to May 1943.

A total of 65 persons, including commissioners, associate members and guests from eight counties, attended the bi-monthly meeting, held in the Evergreens restaurant at the north edge of Upper Sandusky.

The meeting opened with a banquet sponsored by the National Lime and Stone Co. and the Central Oil and Emulsion Co., both of Findlay. Louis Kuenzli of Upper Sandusky, owner of the Kuenzli quarries, was master of ceremonies and the Cortman Gravelers of Upper Sandusky, an instrumental quartet, furnished music.

Principal speaker was Fred Milligan, state secretary of commerce. He urged county officials to increase interest in their respective counties through an educational program publicizing historical and other events.

Counties represented included Crawford, Delaware, Hardin, Marion, Morrow, Seneca, Union and Wyandot. Those attending from Marion county were Mr. Lehner, Mr. Guthrie, William Risch and Luther Mitchell, county commissioners; Walter W. Johnson, county engineer, and O. C. McCurdy, former county commissioner.

Next meeting of the association will be held in Crawford county July 14.

Mt. Gilead Child Dies In Galion Hospital

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, May 13—James Leroy Levings, six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Othel Levings of east of Mt. Gilead, died in Galion City hospital at 4 p. m. Monday. He had been ill since birth. A son of Othel and Clara Mullet Levings, he was born Oct. 21. Surviving with the parents are four brothers and three sisters, Charles Richard, Sherman Elwood, John David, Othel Levings Jr., and Flora Mae, Frances Von and Mary Marie Levings, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Levings of Mt. Gilead. Funeral will be Wednesday at 10 a. m. in the Craven funeral home. Burial will be in Rivercliff cemetery, Mt. Gilead.

Announce Program for Harding Orchestra Concert Thursday

Selections by Mozart, Strauss, Tschaikowsky, Rachmaninoff, Romberg and Verdi will make up the program to be given by members of the Harding High school orchestra when they are heard in their annual concert Thursday at the Palace theater. The orchestra is under the direction of Homer Huffman, instrumental music instructor in the city schools. The program is scheduled to begin at 8:15 p. m. and the doors will open at 7:30.

"Gypsy Airs" by Sarasate-Roberts will be the selection presented by Miss Shirley Ann Givens of Louisville, O., violinist, who is appearing as guest artist with the orchestra. Miss Givens, the youngest member of the Canton Symphony orchestra, is concert mistress for the Louisville High school orchestra. She is studying violin under Hans Letz of the Julliard School of Music in New York.

Accompaniment for Miss Givens will be played by the orchestra.

A special matinee concert will be given from 3 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the theater for those fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils of the various schools who purchased season tickets prior to the band concert.

Program Opening

The orchestra will open the program of overtures, waltzes, marches and other compositions with the National Anthem, followed by two selections by W. A. Mozart, an overture, "Cose Fan Tutti," and "Allegro" from the serenade "Eine Kleine Nacht-Musick." The overture was written in 1790, one year before Mozart's death, for the opera by the same name. The "Allegro" is the first movement of a serenade in four movements written for an occasion in Mozarts time when a lover hired a band of musicians to serenade his lady love. The musicians would perform at night beneath the window of the chosen one. The title means, literally, "Little Night Music."

"Perpetual Motion" by Johann Strauss, a lively number, will be the next selection by the orchestra. The final orchestra number in the first group will be the "Weber Suite" with six movements, arranged by Tom Clark. The movements are "March of the Peasants," "Theme," and "Huntsmen's Chorus," all from "Der Freischutz, "Theme" from "Invitation to the Dance," "Andante Opus 3 No. 4," and 'Minuet Opus 3 No. 3." Three of the movements of the suite were adapted from the opera, with the remainder of the excerpts originally written for piano solo.

The solo by Miss Givens will close the first portion of the program.

Following Intermission

Following the intermission, the first number by the orchestra will be "March Slav" by Tschaikowsky-Herfruth. The group will then play "Themes from Piano Concerto No. 2" by Rachaninoff-Herfruth and "Night Song" by Charles Edwin Williams. Selections from "the Student Prince" by Sigmund Romberg will follow, and the orchestra will close the program with the "Triumphal March" from "Aida" by Verdi.

Season tickets which were obtained prior to the Harding band concert will be used for admission to the orchestra concert, and single admission tickets at 75 cents for adults and 40 cents for students will also be available at the box office the night of the concert only.

The Harding band and orchestra concerts are sponsored each year by the Band and Orchestra Parents association.

CINCINNATI PHONES AT NEARLY NORMAL

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 13 — The Queen City was due for near normal telephone service today with the scheduled return to work of some 2,300 union employes of the Cincinnati and Suburban Bell Telephone Co.

James E. Sigafoose, president of the Cincinnati Communications Workers (Ind.), ordered the striking unionists back to their jobs after a Hamilton county court order was issued yesterday restraining two separate unions from picketing company installations.

Although their dispute with the company ended last Friday, members of the Communications Workers union had refused to cross picket lines of the Association of Communication Equipment Workers and the National Association of Equipment Workers, whose strike is directed against the Western Electric Co.

Common Pleas Judge Charles S. Bell granted the temporary restraining order on petition of the Cincinnati Suburban Bell which claimed that picketing by the two unions was illegal since their members were not involved in a strike against the company but against the Western Electric Co., which employs them.

Hamilton, O., members of the Cincinnati Communications Workers were scheduled to join the back-to-work move after voluntary withdrawal of the ACEW and NATEW pickets at the Butler county seat.

There was no immediate announcement regarding the plans of the American Union of Telephone Workers (long lines) which already has settled its dispute with the Cincinnati company but had refused to cross ACEW and NATEW picket lines.

At Findlay, O., Clarence Schmidt, commercial manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., reported that a sufficient number of the city's 165 operators had returned to work to restore practically normal service.

Yugoslavs Strip U. S. Diplomat of Camera

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13 — The state department said today that the American charge d'affaires at Belgrade was stripped of his camera and embassy identification cards during a visit to the Yugoslav town of Pec May 2.

Camera and cards were returned to John M. Cabot, the American official, after a formal protest to Marshall Tito's government.

A spokesman said the state department has now instructed the embassy to ask "appropriate disciplinary action" against the local officials responsible for the incident.

Driverless Car In Traffic Accident

An automobile owned by Robert Sanders of Richwood made a solitary trip down South Prospect street yesterday afternoon and didn't stop until colliding with an auto owned by L. T. LIONS CLUB INDUCTS SEVEN NEW MEMBERS

"Operations Naval Reserve" Discussed by Haldeman at Luncheon.

Seven new members were inducted into the Lions club at the weekly luncheon meeting Monday at Hotel Harding. They are Richard Denman, Rodney Cox, Paul Schwemley, Carlos Hatcher, William Eikenbary, Joe Kelleher and Edward Bohren. The induction ceremony was conducted by three members of the committee, Edward Ruzzo, James Lytle and Walter Moore.

For the program, Robert Haldeman, who is serving as active chairman of the Naval reserve campaign "Operations Naval Reserve" and program chairman for the month, introduced Chief Carpenter's Mate John Daley of Mansfield, and Boatswain's Mate 1/c Howard W. Curtis, of the local recruiting office, who explained the current naval reserve campaign. The purpose of the campaign is to increase the inactive reserve. At the present time, the reserve has a personnel of 625,000, and is striving for one million. The two men also showed a Navy film.

Edward Ruzzo, chairman of the nominating committee which consists of past presidents of the club, presented the slate of officers for the election to be held June 2.

Cecil Gabler, president, announced that the special projects committee will meet Wednesday at 8 p. m. at Hotel Harding to outline suggestions for civic projects. The committee will then submit these projects to the club for approval May 26. The program for Monday, May 19, will be songs by the Harding High school a cappella choir.

Guests of the club were Collum Osborn, Randall Myers, Emil Skubin, Frank Spencer and Phillip Boyd, a former Marion Lion, all members of the Mt. Gilead Lions club. Mr. Osborn gave a short talk explaining the Boy Scout lodge project which their club is currently conducting.

New Mexico Indian Reputed To Be 137

By The Associated Press

RUIDOSO, N. M., May 13—Out of this southern New Mexico mountain resort country today came the story of a Navajo Indian, Francisco Saiz, reputed to be 137 years old—and possibly the nation's oldest living human being.

The account came from a girl reporter, Miss Mary Nell Taeger of the Ruidoso Weekly News, who interviewed Saiz and said she was convinced of his age.

She found Saiz living on a small farm near out-of-the-way Arabella, N. M., 40 miles northeast of Ruidoso.

Still active enough to get about with a cane, Saiz attends to all his personal needs and eats three meals a day with his third set of natural teeth.

GI Students Ineligible For Jobless Benefits

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 13 — The veterans administration said today that war veterans attending school under the GI bill may not use unemployment allowances as summer vacation pay between school terms.

The agency said only veterans actively seeking and willing to take any suitable work may legally accept the allowance. Even then, the veteran is not eligible for unemployment pay during any period for which he receives subsistence allowances under the education and training provisions of the GI bill.

No Clues to Whereabouts Of Missing Girl Found

Police reported today that investigation as to the whereabouts of Nellie Sparks, 14, of 268 Leader street have failed to produce any clues. The girl was reported as missing by her mother Sunday and has not been home since Saturday afternoon.

She is five feet five inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. She has brown hair and eyes and when she left home was wearing a red candy stripe dress, green coat, and blue sandals.

Residence of a relative was checked on a lead sent to the station, but there it was reported that the girl has not been seen.

$3 WHEAT SEEN AS LOOMING POSSIBILITY

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 13—A repetition of last March's soaring wheat prices when the grain went above $3 a bushel for the second time in the board of trade's 99-year history, could develop within the next 10 days, grain experts said today.

While any such spurt would certainly be temporary with a record-breaking billion bushel wheat crop approaching harvest in the southwest, grain men said that it might have political repercussions in view of current efforts to "talk down" the price level.

May wheat is now selling around $2.65 a bushel. There are nine days of trading left and price changes are limited to 10 cents a session. Short interest totals nearly 6,000,000 bushels. After May 22 anyone still "short" must deliver actual grain by the end of the month.

Observers here said that one way to assure that there will be no price spurt is for the CCC to accept a later date for the wheat owed it—say June 30, when some new crop will be available. However, department of agriculture officials said there would be no change in present policies unless it came from the highest levels.

On Today's Program of York Rite Reunion.

Orders of knighthood were conferred by officers and [illegible] of Marion Commandery No. [illegible] Knights Templar, at today's session of the fifth York Rite reunion which opened Saturday at the Masonic temple.

Today's conclave was opened by Harry C. Williams, [illegible] commander, with the conferring of the Order of the Red Cross on a class of candidates. Ralph G. Williamson, a past commander, presided for conferring of the Order of Malta and presiding for the first section of the conferring of the Order of the Temple was Esla E. Veley.

Candidates from Mt. Gilead, Marysville and Crestline made up the class receiving the Capitular degrees yesterday afternoon and last night. Chester Pearce of Bellefontaine, a past grand high priest of the grand chapter, gave a short address following conferring of the royal arch degree. Approximately 200 members and guests were present for the evening session, which was preceded by a dinner served by women of the White Shrine.

The reunion will close Wednesday night with the conferring of the super excellent master degree by officers of Marion council.

pigeonholed by the Republican-controlled committee since Jan. 28. In the interval, the council already has met and adjourned, to meet again next fall.

Republican opposition to Britain was reported to stem from the "New Deal" viewpoint which some G.O.P. committee members think should not be carried to the UN council.

However, a Democratic senator who favors the nomination told a reporter he thinks the fate of the appointment rests on whether Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) decides to go along, even reluctantly.

Vandenberg, who put an informal freeze order on the nomination while the senate was battling over the President's choice of David E. Lilienthal to head the atomic control commission, has declined comment.

The "New Deal" issue also was said to have been raised against Ethridge by southern Democrats as well as Republicans. One of these Democrats said he told administration lieutenants when they approached him about the matter that he would oppose confirmation of Ethridge if he were nominated. The senator added that other southerners have expressed the same view to him.

Kenton Gets Fourth Safety-Service Director

Special to The Star

KENTON O., May 13—Kenton today had its fourth safety-service director under the present administration when Harry L. Houser was named to take over the duties Monday.

He replaces Carl Gardner who was dismissed Monday by Mayor LeRoy Hoppe after serving since June 1, 1945. Mayor Hoppe gave no reason for Gardner's dismissal other than to say the position was appointive and not under civil service.

Gardner could not be reached for a statement. Houser who had served Kenton for 33 years as a policeman and fireman resigned his position as fireman to take the position which will automatically end with Hoppe's term as mayor on December 31, 1947. Hoppe is not a candidate for reelection.

COUNCIL VOTES STREET CLOSED

Drive, Never Opened as Thoroughfare, Ordered Vacated in Ordinance.

Routine matters occupied city council at its meeting Monday night. An ordinance was voted to vacate on the city plat a section of Westwood drive south of Keener avenue to Bruce street. The drive has never been opened as a public thoroughfare. Authorization was given for publication of a notice of public hearing to be held July 14 concerning a petition for closing the first alley north of Church street running east from Vine street. Petition for the vacation of an alley east of Kensington street on the city corporation line was referred to the street and alley committee.

Council adopted a resolution to settle the claim of Raymond McClung whose daughter, Jacqueline, was struck by a city truck February 14. Mr. McClung claimed $328.98 for hospital and doctors bills.

Acceptance of a report on possibility of constructing a sanitary and storm sewer on Garfield street from Barnhart street to Midlam avenue was voted by council. City Engineer Tom Cathers stated in a letter to council that the shallow depth of the Barnhart street sewer made it impossible to extend the sewer. A resolution was adopted authorizing the city engineer to prepare plans, profiles, specifications and an estimate of construction costs of a sanitary and storm sewer on Marshall street from Milburn avenue to the east terminus. Referred to the sanitary and sewer committee were petitions for construction of sewers on Frederick street from North State to the east terminus, on North State from Fairground to Hazen on Harrison from State to the east terminus, on Hughes from State to the east terminus and on Elk avenue from State to the east terminus.

Zoning Requests

Council referred to the city planning commission a number of requests for rezoning lots from residential to commercial uses. Referred to the commission were petitions by, Ella S. Welter, a lot at the southwest corner of Buckeye and Henry streets, for the purpose of constructing a welding shop; Eva and Neil G. Cooper, a lot at the corner of Cheney avenue and Otis street for operating a grocery store; T. R. Sammons and William Kraner, a lot at 185 North Main street for the purpose of constructing a grocery store building; Arthur Vogel, a lot on North Main street near the city limits for use as a soft drink and sandwich stand.

A recommendation by the planning commission was read not to rezone a lot at the corner of Silver and Maple streets from residential to commercial. The petition for rezoning was filed by Ellis Goldschmidt.

Contract for Prisoners

Renewal of a contract with the county for confinement and support of city prisoners was approved by council. Cost of housing prisoners has increased 50 per cent, the safety-service director now being authorized to pay to the county $1.50 per day for feeding, support, confinement, board, weekly shaving and monthly hair cuts for all male prisoners.

Council referred to the utility committee a petition for construction of a water main on Adams street from 461 Adams street to Jefferson street. The report on the hardness of city water for the period ended May 10 showed a high of 7.9 grains and a low of 5.3 grains.

Councilmen reported complaints that railroad crossings in the southwest sections of the city are being blocked for unduly long periods by trains waiting for clearance to pass through the city.

BURBRINK HOMERS IN NINTH TO EDGE DAYTON 20-18

Cub Manager Performs Like Legendary Comic Strip Hero

By DON C. BURTON

Everything happened at Lincoln Park last night.

The stories of Frank Merriwell, the comic characters of Li'l Abner and Joe Palooka were all fakers compared to Manager Nelson Burbrink, aggressive leader of the fighting Marion Cubs.

In one of the wildest contests ever played in any league, the Cubs pulled one out of the fire in the ninth to win from Dayton 20 to 18.

Burbrink Delivers

Manager Nelson Burbrink demonstrated to his young hustling boys how to hit in the pinches. He crashed out two home runs, a double, and a single in five trips to the plate, and batted in 10 runs as well as scoring five times himself.

The major league record for runs batted in is 11.

Coming to bat in the ninth with Dayton leading 18 to 15, Buddy Gray, batting for Meyers, walked, and Bruce Adams angled while batting for Tate, the fourth Marion pitcher of the night. Roy Hollingshead walked and the bases were loaded.

Star Hurler Comes In

After striking out Mel Wiebel, Dalton, the fourth Dayton pitcher, walked Gene Bobzean to force in a run and put the winning run on first. Manager Ival Goodman trotted out their star hurler, Roy Jackson, to replace the tottering Dalton.

Jackson struck out Nelson for the second out, but the bases were still loaded. Out came Manager Burbrink and sent Jackson's first pitch on a long drive over the left field wall to score the three ahead of him, end the game, and send a crowd of 1,159 wild-eyed fans home happy.

Zanesville Hurler Does Everything Wrong but Wins

By The Associated Press

Pitcher Ed Privette of the Ohio State league leading Zanesville Dodgers walked 18 men, threw two wild pitches, hit one batter, and still earned a victory over the Richmond Roses last night.

In fact, Privette had a shutout going into the ninth. Then six walks and an error by the Zanesville second baseman let in four Richmond runs, and Ed was relieved. The Dodger hitters, however, had piled up an eight-run margin in the first four inning, and won 8 to 4.

Richmond left 21 runners stranded.

There was a three-hour-long slugfest at Lima which Springfield won 16-15. Lima had the bases loaded with one run in and one out in the 10th but Tony West, the Giants' pitching ace, struck out the final two men to end the game.

Springfield centerfielder Davis was banned from the game in the 10th by umpire Jack Norris for protesting when he was thrown out trying to stretch a single into a double.

The game at Newark was more on the conservative side. Ed Post pitched three-hit ball for Muncie to give the Packers an 8-2 win over Newark.

LOUIS AT 33 SEEKS 24TH CHALLENGER

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 13 — Joe Louis sat back confidently and observed his 33rd birthday today while others combed the field for a 24th challenger for his heavyweight boxing crown.

Golfing and otherwise doing mighty like he pleases, Joe will be toasted by home-town followers at a double-barreled blowout here tonight.

The first reason for the celebration is, of course, the birthday. Secondly, it is nearly 10 years since Joe acquired the sport's most coveted title.

An insurance company of which the Brown Bomber is an official is throwing the party, complete with cake, candles and all the trimmings.

Louis is looking forward to his next championship fight with as much enthusiasm as he has ever shown.

Informed that Joe Baksi, the Pennsylvania coal miner, was reconsidering a title bout next September, the champ said "that's okay with me."

"I don't pick my opponents," he added, "I never have and I am not going to start now. That's up to the promoters."

Legion Post To Open Drive To Sell Baseball Tickets

The drive to sell 4,000 tickets to the American Legion junior baseball game which will be held along with a Marion Cub game June 11 starts at Bird McGinnis post meeting tonight.

Tickets will be distributed to members, and placed at various places in Marion tomorrow.

The tickets which are priced at $1 will include the local Legion game with Lima's Legion team and the Cubs' game with Lima's Terriers. Proceeds will be used to help finance the Legion baseball recreation program this season.

Local Heads To Attend Legion Baseball Parley

Nelson Irvin and W. E. Orcutt will attend a meeting, called by the state commission of American Legion baseball, in Columbus tonight. Irvin has been appointed coach of the team and Orcutt is one of the officials who has been helping with the program. Several others from Marion may also attend.

Yesterday afternoon 251 local lads had made application, an increase of 74 boys.

Next Saturday over 300 should swarm to Harding Field for the first practice.

Boys under 17 years old the first of the year were asked to sign with the club. As it will be impossible for all the hopefuls to play with one team, officials in charge of the program are talking of setting up teams of boys to play intra-city ball.

This would help take care of the overload of players and, by playing boys not quite advanced enough in experience or years to play with the team now, provides a feeder system for city Legion teams in the future.

Tonight's meeting will be run on the order of a rules clinic. Changes of the rules since last year and an explanation of points regulating the American Legion program will be presented.

As many teams from this section of the state are expected to be represented there, the Marion delegates will talk schedule with outfits interested.

COUNTRY CLUB PLANS SCREW BALL BOGEY

A field of Marion golfers is raring to go according to Country club officials.

With good weather conditions prevailing the sport is expected to get its start for the summer in a screw ball bogey tournament at the Country club Thursday.

Because of the weather two starts have been halted but better conditions this week make an opening possible.

One hundred and twenty-five persons were at the club for a stag luncheon last week and most of these persons are expected to be divot digging Thursday.

Prizes will be awarded for a low gross score, five low tournament scores, and the high gross. Tournament score will be determined by counting one stroke over par as the bogy for each hole. Shots over this will be counted as a plus bogy and under will count as a minus bogy.

The bogy total will then be added to the golfers' total, with handicap, for 18 holes.

One such tournament a month is planned by the club during the golfing season.

Handicaps awarded in 1946 will be used for this tourney.

The women will have their day tomorrow in their regular weekly session on the links. Women's golfing, like the men's has been almost completly stymied so far.

NEWSOM STILL OUT FOR FIRST VICTORY

Needs 6 To Crash Select 200-Win Circle.

By The Associated Press

At the rate boisterous Bobo Newsom, Washington's self-styled 20-game winner is going along this season, he may be lucky to collect the necessary six triumphs he needs in order to join the select list of pitchers who have won 200 or more games in the major league.

The garrulous righthander has yet to gain his first mound win this season.

Newsom was barely at fault last night as he failed in his third attempt to register his initial win. He gave up only five hits and one run in eight innings. Philadelphia came up with four runs in the top half of the 11th to whip the Senators 5-1.

Each league got a new runner-up tenant as Brooklyn moved into second spot in the National by defeating the Boston Braves 8-2 at Ebbets field and the Boston Red Sox nipped the New York Yankees 4-3 at Fenway Park to move behind Detroit in the American.

The Dodgers made good use of 11 hits to clip the Braves, who dropped to third place by nine per centage points.

The game was highlighted by a Dodger run-in with Plate Umpire George Magerkurth in the second frame over his ball and strike decisions and resulted in the clearing of the Brooklyn bench of every one except Manager Burt Shotton, Coach Jake Pitler, infielder Cookie Lavagetto and pitcher Hugh Casey.

No other games were scheduled.

Trinity, Forest Lawn, U. B. And St. Mary No. 2 Win First Tilts

Y.M.C.A. softball got off to a home run start last night.

Circuit clouts were the features of four games as the Sunday School league launched the 1947 season with Forest Lawn edging Epworth 7-6, Trinity Baptist shading Greenwood 8-6, United Brethren taking St. Mary No. 1 7-6 and St. Mary No. 2 turning Presbyterian back 10-9.

H. Myers of Forest Lawn tagged the ball for three home runs in four trips to the plate. The victors won in the eighth as Miner singled, stole second and scored as Willoughby hit to center.

Homer Ties Game

Spain of Greenwood and French and C. Gorby of Trinity hit four-baggers in the Greenwood-Trinity game. Spain's three run homer tied up the ball game in the top of the seventh.

Trinity went on to win in the bottom of that inning as S. Somerlot walked, went to third on C. Gorby's single and scored on K. Somerlot's hard hit single through third base.

United Brethren overcame a six run deficit to whip St. Mary No. 1 as Roy Everly tied up the game in the sixth with a homer with one man on base. In the seventh Kunkle, United Brethren pitcher, won his own ball game with a homer to deep left center field. D. Greenland and D. Moran hit home runs for St. Mary.

Hold Up Irish Honor

St. Mary No. 2 held up the honor of the Irish as they turned back a strong Presbyterian six run rally in the sixth to shade the losers 10 to 9.

Southerners Sore Long Time

This discrimination in freight rates, on class rate goods, has made southerners sore for a long time.

They argue that this, among other things, has kept new manufacturers and industries from opening in the south since they get better rates by staying in the north.

The ICC began an investigation of this class rate discrimination in 1939. In 1945, after many hearings, it issued a ruling.

This ruling, to wipe out the class rate differences between the sections, said class rates should be cut 10 per cent in the south and west and boosted 10 per cent in the north.

Railroads and northern states fought this ruling up to the supreme court. Yesterday the court upheld the ICC. So—

The ICC ruling will help southern and western shippers of "class rate" goods, but only that kind of goods. The ICC didn't touch the commodity rates under which most goods move.

Because only four per cent of the nation's freight is affected—the class rate stuff—one ICC official said the importance of the ruling should not be over-emphasized.

He doesn't expect to see any sudden flood of new industry into the south as a result of the decision.

Through the intervention of Erle Stanley Gardner, creator of the "Perry Mason" mystery heard over CBS, Governor Earl Warren of California has commuted the sentence of William Marvin Lindley, who had been scheduled to die in California's gas chamber June 6. Evidence that Gardner claims proves Lindley innocent was uncovered by the famous lawyer-author. Three justices of the California supreme court supported Gardner's petition to the governor on the basis of there being reason for "grave doubt" concerning the convicted man's guilt.

STOCKS STILL TRAVEL ON DOWNHILL GRADE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 13—Stocks generally continued their downward course today with many market leaders touching new lows for the year or longer before attracting timid support.

Dealings slowed after a relatively fast opening in which blocks of 1,000 to 6,000 shares were plentiful and losses of fractions to 2 or more points numerous.

On the offside the greater portion of the session were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Goodyear, Caterpillar Tractor, United Aircraft, American Telephone, Santa Fe, Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville, American Smelting, Johns-Manville, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum, Texas Co., Sperry, Skelly Oil, American Woolen, Burlington Mills, Monsanto Chemical, West Indies Sugar, Spencer Kellog (despite a split proposal) and Colgate-Palmolive.

Homestake Mining, on the other hand, edged to a 1947 high. Resistant were J. C. Penney, Pepsi-Cola, Glenn Martin, Dome Mines and Dow Chemical.

don't DO that!

HONEST, I THINK ASTRONOMY BOOKS IS GRAND - I DON'T UNDERSTAND ALL THE BIG, LONG WORDS, BUT THE PICTURES IS GRAND -
GOOD FOR YOU, YOUNGSTER - KEEP STUDYING AND YOU WILL UNDERSTAND - ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT EVERY ONE OF THE ROUND OBJECTS YOU SEE ON THE PAGE IS THE PICTURE OF A GREAT BIG WORLD -
IT'S KINDA HARD TO TELL THE NAMES OF ALL THE WORLDS - BUT I'M GONNA KEEP ON LOOKIN' AT THE BOOK -
AN' MAYBE WHEN I GROW UP I'LL SAY "TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE STAR - HOW I KNOW WHICH STAR YOU ARE -"

WE KNOW BRONKO SWIPED THE TELEPHONE COIN BOX FROM THAT VACANT STORE AND TOOK IT IN HIS CHICKEN HOUSE
MAYBE HE TOOK IT UP TO THE PIGEON LOFT! YOU SEE, JUNIOR, THERE'S A PIGEON LOFT OVER THE CHICKEN HOUSE
ANYWAY, IF WE'RE TO FORCE BRONKO TO MEND HIS WAYS WE'VE GOT TO FIND THE EVIDENCE AND CONFRONT HIM WITH IT.
"THAT," CONTINUES JUNIOR, "MEANS THAT ONE OF US HAS GOT TO ENTER BRONKO'S PIGEON LOFT AND FIND OUT WHAT'S IN THERE!"

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

FOR the fraction of a second I hesitated to answer Faith's question.

Was I sure that I could hold Mary back from the dark brink over which she appeared determined to plunge?

But even as I braced myself to reassure her, at the cost of truth if necessary, Dicky rushed to my rescue.

"Of course Cousin Mary isn't going to die," he told her, "She's very sick, and everybody is going to be very busy taking care of her. For instance, for the next few days, neither Mummy or Daddy can play with you very much. But you can be sure we aren't going to let her die."

She looked at him with the cool appraisal of childhood, and then she turned to me.

"Is that what you say, too?" she asked gravely.

"Yes, darling," I told her, and as her father swung her up to his shoulders for her promised "piggy-back" ride, she gave a little sigh of relief.

"I'm so glad," she said, then added with the serious sweetness that sometimes imbues her speech and actions: "And I want to help, too. I guess the best way will be to be very good and not ask you for things you won't have time to do."

"Yes, that will be the very best way," I told her, and turned back to my post in the doorway of Mary's room, as our small daughter began to squeal delightedly at the wild "piggy-back" ride her father was giving her.

Dicky Returns

He came back into the room at the end of five minutes, and I rose as he entered, and went to meet him.

"Is she sleepy?" I asked, and he looked at me ruefully.

"That wasn't such a hot idea, that 'piggy-back,'" he said. "It jolted her wide awake."

"Please put down a long credit mark for me," I told him smiling. "I'm not uttering one word of criticism."

"No, but you're doing a lot of thinking," he said. "However, you may have better luck than I did. But I don't think going away and leaving her in the dark, as she usually wants us to, is going to do the trick tonight."

"I'll try to think of something," I told him, knowing that in all probability, Faith had a program laid out for me, and went on into my small daughter's bedroom, finding her sitting bolt upright in her narrow bed.

"Mummy," she began coaxingly, "do you have to do things for Cousin Mary right away? I heard somebody say she would sleep the whole night through."

Suppresses a Smile

"That's right, Faith," I told her, heroically suppressing a smile at her approach. "I do not have to go back into the other room for several minutes. Daddy is watching Cousin Mary."

"Then," she said, putting her arms out to me, "would you do something for your little girl who can't get to sleep? I've counted sheep 'n everything, and I'm getting more wide awake every minute. And, of course, I've got school tomorrow," she finished virtuously.

"What would you like me to do, darling?" I asked cautiously.

"Why, you know sometimes when I'm sick, you lie down with me, and sing that funny little song you used to sing when I was a baby, 'Faith, dear girl; Baby girl, Mummy's girl.' I'm sure if my hand was in yours, and I heard you sing that, I could get to sleep."

I swallowed the lump in my throat before I answered her.

"Of course I'll do that, my baby," I said. "Now, let's lie down and I'll begin. But, first, you'd better kiss me good night, and then you can go to sleep as I sing."

Crooning Song

"Won't it be funny if you go to sleep, too?" she asked, with a giggle, when she had kissed me goodnight, and she was snuggled close to me, waiting for me to begin my crooning song.

"Very funny," I told her, but did not echo the words an hour later when the pressure of Dicky's fingers on my wrist wakened me.

"Hush!" he whispered, as he took Faith's little hand from mine and laid it at her side.

Then, with infinite care, he helped me to ease myself away from her and stand erect. We pulled the fleecy blankets over her and then crept noiselessly from the darkened room.

"I wouldn't have disturbed you until morning," Dicky said when we were back in the sitting room again with the door closed. "But I was afraid all the muscles in both your bodies would be cramped if I left you there. But now you're going to camp down on this living room couch. I'm going to watch

I GO NOW, MASTER, AS YOU ORDERED, TO BRING WORD TO THE TRIBAL LEADERS OF THE MESSAGE FROM THE MAN BONE.
TELL THEM TO GATHER HERE, AT ONCE. BOR MAY ARRIVE TO LEAD US IN REVOLT AT ANY HOUR.
BUT ONE THING MORE, MASTER— IF I TELL THEM THAT THE MESSAGE SPOKE OF THE SHEARING OF SHEEP AND WARNED OF ATTACKS UPON FLOCKS BY WOLVES, WILL THEY NOT THINK WE JOKE WITH THEM?
WRECKLE! EVEN YOU SHOULD REALIZE THE MESSAGE HAD TWO MEANINGS...
...WHILE IT SPOKE OF SHEEP, IT REFERRED TO THE FAT MERCHANTS AND BULGING WAREHOUSES OF THE CITIES. AND WHEN IT SPOKE OF WOLVES... EE, STUPID ONE, ARE THE WOLVES.
